

Visa

Written by Administrator

Sunday, 15 March 2009 02:30 - Last Updated Saturday, 30 January 2010 01:54

Travel to Canada may require an entry visa. Citizens of many Western European countries (e.g., UK, France, Germany, etc.) and the US do not need visa to enter Canada. Please contact the Canadian Embassy or Consulate in your region to inquire if you need a visa to enter Canada

The Local Organizing Committee (LOC) of ICMMES-2010 will provide invitation letters for visa application purpose only to those who have registered and paid the registration fees. To request an invitation letter for your visa application, please provide your full name (as spelled in your passport), affiliation, business mailing address, and email address to Professor Jos Derksen, the Chair of LOC, _____

This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it with a subject line "

letter for visa application

." The invitation will be sent as soon as the registration fees are received.