ICMMES uses Conftool , a conference management software, to handle the registration and abstract submission. Participants are asked to create an account using Conftool

with a unique

username

and

password

. The required data to create an account are:

1. Your affiliation;
2. Your job title;
3. Your full name (first and last/family/surname);
4. Your business postal address;
5. And your email address.

Once your account is created, you can login to edit the information saved previously and/or to upload, save, edit, and submit abstract files.

To attend ICMMES-2010, please complete the following steps:

1. Create an account by going to the registration page ; If you have created your account already, you can login here .

Note: After creating your account, you still need to register;

2. Register to participate the Conference and/or short courses with your Conftool account;
3. Pay registration fees on time (no registration will be valid until the registration fees are received);
4. Submit an abstract online by login to your account if you wish to give an oral or poster presentation.

Please check the schedule for registration fees and the important dates and deadlines for further details.
